Murphy's Special Bracelet

WRITTEN BY:
JENNIFER BURNETT
ILLUSTRATED BY:
RENAE MYERS

"For me, books were and are such a big part of my life. Writing a children's book, especially about something so important, was a dream of mine and I'm so happy Renae was willing to join me on the journey."
-Mrs. Burnett

Mrs. Burnett has always wanted to write a children's book. Mrs. Myers has always wanted to illustrate a children's book. A few years ago, the conversation happened and they began working on the idea of writing and illustrating a book together! The book tells the story of Murphy, a young girl, who was born with a rare medical condition that cannot be 'seen' so she must wear a medical bracelet and take daily medication.

"It has always been a dream of mine to illustrate a children's book! So when Mrs. Burnett asked, the answer was a absolute YES!. Always keep your dreams alive, because someday they just might happen!" -Mrs. Myers

When Murphy is at school, there are times when students

Murphy talks about her special bracelet at lunch a lot
